

JACINDA, BE A HERO FOR CHICKENS!

DEAR JACINDA,

Did you know most of the chickens kept to lay eggs in New Zealand are confined in cages on overcrowded farms? They live their whole lives in a space about the size of this piece of paper. That's just too small! Most chickens will have their beaks trimmed without any pain relief to prevent them from pecking one another - what a horrible life for such an intelligent and curious bird.

Banning keeping chickens in cages in New Zealand is important to me because...
